

GREETING FROM COOLIDGE

November 2, 2015

schools.shrewsburyma.gov/coolidge/

Dear Families,

It was thrilling to see so many of you at the Family Fun Walk on Friday afternoon. We saw the creativity and talent on the sides of our students, and it's interesting to see children try on different identities. We saw the creativity of the adults, costumed or not. There were a lot of unlikely villains in the crowd among both students and adults. We saw the graders to facilitate giving back. Thanks to those of you that made donations to St. John's. We are so grateful for such a fun-loving and generous community. Looking for another opportunity for a

We see a different aspects of our partnership with families tomorrow at Conference. We will see the classroom teachers and specialists about their child's progress thus far in school, and we will see the individual students, too.

Please remember that tomorrow (Tuesday, 11/3) is not a school day for children. If you are a parent or guardian, please note that we will have staff on hand in the cafeteria to assist. How do we handle the conference(s). We anticipate an ongoing need throughout the day we cannot accom
